ACCOUNT CHARGING PRIVILEGES

The Willows Golf & Country Club has adopted a policy regarding charging accounts. As a member, you have the option of utilizing a charge account at all revenue centers in the facility. If you wish to have account charging privileges, you must provide a valid credit card number to The Willows in order to activate your account (on the Membership Application Form).

Junior members wishing to have account charging privileges at The Willows will be required to have a parent's credit card number on file to clear account charges monthly. A parent will also be required to provide us with an email address to receive account statements.

Please indicate on the Membership Application form if you wish to have account charging privileges.
